Flight & Hotel Booking

Defining your needs for accommodation and matching those, which will satisfy your demands is the first step and Professional Travel with its relationship with all of the top hotels in Belek are well placed to offer advice on this.

Once the accommodation has been identified the company can make the flight reservations with the airline which best matches your schedule.

PROFESSIONAL TRAVEL

Personal Airport Meet & Greet

Your first direct contact with the company will be immediately outside the terminal building where your personal concierge will meet you, along with your chauffeur.

You will then be taken to your hotel by limousine of which we have a choice, where you will enjoy a speedy check-in before being shown to your accommodation. Prior to your arrival Professional Travel will have made certain everything is ready and waiting for you.

Helicopter transfers to and from the airport are also an option.

PROFESSIONAL TRAVEL

Butler Service

Many of the hotels provide these for their VIP guests and Professional Travel will ensure your butler has been well briefed before you arrive to ensure he knows what your expectations are for your stay.

It is his job to make sure your accommodation is tidy at all times and to serve any meals you may wish to eat there. He will also deal with personal laundry and arrange other sundry items like flowers, etc. to be brought to the room as required.

City Tours & Sightseeing

Turkey is a country rich in history and beautiful scenery. From your base in Belek, we can arrange day trips to explore all of these including the natural hot springs of Pamukkale, or the chimney pots (rock formations) of Cappadocia. Alternatively spend a day in Istanbul or an evening in the casinos of Northern Cyprus.

Staying closer to your holiday home you can visit the Old Town of Antalya, wander round and through the Roman ruins of the city of Perge and discover the beauty of the natural waterfalls of Antalya.

As part of your trip we can include jet-skis, windsurfing and diving.

At all times your transportation will be in vehicles which suit your needs. On the ground this will be by chauffeur driven limousine or luxury private people carriers. The vehicle required will be agreed beforehand.

If necessary and especially for some of the longer day trips a helicopter or private jet can be chartered. This is especially recommended for day trips to Pamukkale, Cappadocia and Northern Cyprus.

Whether it be jewellery or leather goods from one of the reputable suppliers in the area or visiting the major shopping malls and centers which specialise in the major brands, Turkey is a haven for shopping.

As part of our executive service we will help plan your trip and only take you to the stores and outlets, which are of interest. No wasting time wandering from shop to shop, unless of course you want to.
